Some progress at the Middlemiss residence has been noticed now. Much of the debris in the front yard has been removed and some in the backyard has also been taken away.

Alice Reed will do what she can with the Watson property. She reportedly has help to cart away much of the debris from the old building that has been knocked down.

The status of other properties and Court proceedings is not known. No report from Code Enforcement is available at this time.

Building of a store and a church at the power museum property is currently being undertaken.

No other matters were before the board this night for consideration.

A motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Bruce Durant and seconded by Bill Hull.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:45.
